4 As part of River Gallery School's (RGS) 50th anniversary,
5 they will host an exhibit of the work of local photographer Robert 6 George from July 3 to Aug. 31 at their Main Street gallery. An 7 opening celebration takes place Friday, July 3, from 5 to 8 p.m.

8 "Our mutual love of town, its children and streets, its 9 painters and builders; its small monuments and shifting light, its 10 moments of rest and labor run through his photographs," 11 organizers wrote in a news release. "He draws us in from the 12 margins, toward places and faces we might otherwise overlook.

13 His camera moves from curbside to canopy, delighting in 14 unexpected compositions and offering quiet meditations on 15 passing seasons.”

16 For those connected to RGS, George has been a steady
17 presence. While artists turn inward to their work, he attends to 18 the wider world, organizers said, “reminding us of the 19 community that sustains creativity.” In this spirit, organizers assert 20 he joins a lineage of photographers like Doisneau, Cartier-
21 Bresson, and those associated with the New York School, who 22 captured and celebrated everyday life.

23 George’s images “suggest that every artwork, whether 24 still life or landscape, holds the qualities of a portrait,” wrote 25 organizers. “Together, his photographs and the life of RGS form a 26 living record of place and time. His work reminds us to look
27 carefully, to notice one another, and to honor the quiet
28 exchanges that shape our shared history.”

29 George is generously donating all proceeds to support
30 River Gallery School’s 50th anniversary fundraising efforts. For
